Moderate: 21 - 50% likelihood (or 2 to 5 chances in 10) that the event will actually happen.
High: 51 - 70% likelihood (or 5 to 7 chances in 10) that the event will actually happen.
Very High: 71 - 100% likelihood (or 7 to 10 chances in 10) that the event will actually happens.

Rain amount: 0 – 1.0mm (Mainly fine with little to no rain)

Impacts:

- Water plants and crops as necessary
- Carry umbrella or Sun Screen to protect you from the Sun, and have drinking water available
- Generally, a Good Day for outdoor activities (e.g., Laundry, picnics, wedding ceremonies, sports activities etc.…)
- Watch out for prolonged dry periods (red colour) for more than 14 days (drought).

Rain amount: 1.1 – 5mm (Cloudy periods with Light Showers or Light Rain: puddles form slowly)

Impacts:

- School children may need to take rain coats or umbrella with them just in case of passing showers.
- Down pipes and water catchments should be clean and ready to receive as much water as possible.
- Expect slight muddy road conditions in some low-lying areas.
- Household outdoor activities (e.g., BBQ, Birthday Celebrations, clean up or Tapa Making etc.) should be planned to consider that there will be periods of rain.
- Favourable for Outdoor gardening especially planting.

Rain amount: > 5mm (Generally Cloudy or Overcast with Rain or Heavy Showers: puddles rapidly forming and down pipes flowing freely)

Impacts:

- Green means listening to radio for the weather forecast for any possible heavy rain or flood warnings.
- Possible Flooding and school cancellations if more than 50mm.
- Muddy ground conditions are likely, plan accordingly (e.g., use 4-wheel drive when going to the plantation)
- General Public should take rain coats/umbrellas with them and spare changing clothes.
- Beware of elevated chances of soil erosion and run offs in slope areas
- Plan for indoor activities (e.g., indoor workshops, accounting, planning, etc.…)
- Mosquitoes could be a problem, two weeks after continuous periods of heavy rain.
